(연관된 문제는 같은 색으로 표시했습니다.)

9월 모의평가 1번 (그림에서 인물, 사물 고르기)

대화를 듣고, 여자가 구입할 선풍기를 고르시오.

[Script]

M: Hello. Can I help you find something?

W: Yes, I'm looking for a portable fan.

M: Okay. We have many different types of portable fans over here.

W: Great. Can you recommend one for me?

M: What do you think of this bicycle-shaped one? It has a fun design.

W: It's interesting but looks a little childish. I'd like to buy a more typical one.

M: Then, what about this circle-shaped one or that square-shaped one?

W: Both are okay, but I prefer the square one.

M: That's a good choice. Square fans are very popular nowadays. This model comes with or without a remote control.

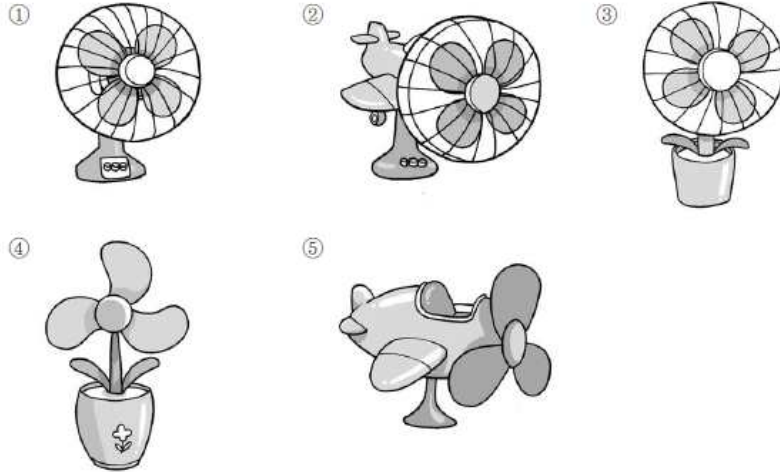

W: I don't need a remote control, so I'll take the one without it.

M: All right. Here you are.

W: Thank you.

→ EBS 교교영어듣기 I, p162 (31장~32장, 1번), 그림에서 인물, 사물 고르기

[Script]

M: Hi, I'd like to buy a portable fan.

W: Follow me, please. Portable fans are over here.

M: Sure!

W: What do you think about this traditional-shaped one?

M: Well... its design is too simple. I'd like to buy one with a unique design.

W: Then, what about this airplane-shaped one or that flowerpot-shaped one?

M: Both seem to be good, but I prefer the airplane-shaped one to the flowerpot-shaped one.

W: This airplane-shaped one is one of the most popular models at the moment.

M: But I don't think a fan without a frame is safe. Do you have the same model with a frame?

W: Yes, we do. Here it is.

M: Oh, that's what I was looking for. Okay, I'll buy this one.

9월 모의평가 2번 (심경 추론)

W: How's it going with your soup, Mr. Kim?

M: Well, Ms. Johnson, I don't know when to add these vegetables.

W: Add them when the soup begins to boil.

M: Oh, right. You said that several times but I keep forgetting. How depressing!

W: No one's perfect.

M: But it's already my third week! I don't think I have any talent for cooking at all.

W: Don't worry. If you keep trying, you'll be a good cook someday.

M: But I really want to make dinner for my wife's birthday next week. Now it seems impossible.

W: Cheer up! Oh, your soup looks ready. Let me taste it.

M: [Pause] How is it?

W: Umm... I think you put in sugar instead of salt.

M: Oh, no! What should I do?

9월 모의고사 3번 (담화의 주제)

다음을 듣고, 여자가 하는 말의 주제로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

- ① 기업화된 동물 사육의 문제점
- ② 채식 위주 음식 섭취의 장점

[Script]

W: Last time, we learned about the benefits of drinking tea. Today, we'll talk about plant-based food consumption. First, plant-based foods such as fruit, vegetables, and grain help us stay healthy by lowering blood pressure and cholesterol. A plant-based diet also saves an enormous number of animals from being killed by the meat industry. Less demand for meat leads to a decrease in the number of livestock raised for food. This in turn reduces the amount of methane gas and waste the animals produce. In short, by following a plant-based diet we can stay healthy, save the animals, and protect the environment.

→ EBS 수능완성(실전), p49 (4회, 3번), 담화의 주제

다음을 듣고, 남자가 하는 말의 주제로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

- ① 채식 위주 식사의 이점
- ② 음식 기부 문화의 확산

- ④ 전통 음식 현대화의 필요성
- ⑤ 문화가 식단 구성에 미치는 영향

[Script]

Last time, we talked about the importance of regular exercise. Today, we'll talk about plant-based food consumption. First, it can bring about surprising health benefits when it is combined with moderate exercise. That is because a plant-based diet lowers blood cholesterol and blood pressure. Eating plant-based foods can also be our best action against the destructive meat industry, which kills enormous numbers of animals and needs more and more land for grazing every year. By following a plant-based diet, we can save money, effort, and land. Consequently, we can help to save Mother Nature.

M: Then do you have to contact everyone who participated in your survey again?

W: Yeah. I still have to get a response from 10 more people.

M: That's a lot! Why don't I call them for you?

W: That would be a big help. While you do that, I'll work on the data I already have.

M: Where's the list of their names and phone numbers?

M: Oh, no! Do you think you can finish it in time?

W: I don't know. I guess I'll just have to do the best I can.

M: Is there anything I can do to help you finish it, like sorting out the new survey papers?

W: I already did that. Actually, it would be helpful if you could type in people's answers into the computer.

M: I can do that for you. Just type in their answers for each question, right?

W: Right. That will save me time to analyze the results.

M: Good morning! How's your puppy doing today?

W: She's been looking a little sick lately.

M: Is that so? Can you put her on the examining table for me?

W: Sure.

M: Let's see.... Her gums look rather red.

W: What does that mean?

M: Red gums can indicate gum disease in animals.

W: That must be the reason why she hasn't been barking or eating well recently.

M: I can recommend a special chewing bone for her. It'll help clean her teeth and strengthen her gums.

W: That would be great.

M: If you notice that the redness doesn't disappear in a week, bring her back for another checkup.

W: I understand. Thank you.

[Script]

W: If your dog looks sick, these simple tests will help you find out whether your dog is really sick or not. Pull your dog's lip up and look at its gums. They should be a mild pink. Excessively red gums can indicate a high body temperature or gum disease. Pale gums indicate weakness or poor blood flow from low blood pressure. Yellow gums suggest liver problems. You can also do a simple test. Find an area of pink gum and press your finger on it to turn it white. Remove your finger and count how many seconds it takes for the color to come back. Normally, it takes less than two seconds. If it takes longer, circulation is poor. This can indicate heart disease. So, if you see any of these signs, you should take your dog to a veterinarian.

* 모의평가에선 대화로, EBS에선 담화로 출제되었으나, 둘 내용이(개의 잇몸과 병의 관계) 비슷하여 기재했습니다.

M: I'm reorganizing the bookshelves.

W: Are you? How's that going?

M: Well, these old books are taking up too much space and I don't know where to put Amy's storybooks.

W: Then, why don't we buy a new bookshelf?

M: I think this room is too small for another one.

W: Yeah, I guess you're right.

M: Why don't we just throw away these old books? We don't even read them anymore.

W: It would be a waste to just throw them away. Is there any way to recycle them somehow?

M: Umm.... There's a Good Hands store in front of Amy's school. It's a charity shop we can donate our books to.

M: Whew, they are quite dusty. We haven't cleaned them for some time.

W: Well, besides dust, there are also too many old books and magazines of yours.

M: What do you mean my old books and magazines?

W: These ones right here. They are taking up too much space.

So, why don't you just get rid of them?

M: No. I don't want to throw them away.

W: Why?

M: Don't you remember I have collected them for over 10 years? They mean a lot to me.

W: But you don't read them anymore. You really need to get rid of things that are old and useless.

W: Honey, have you told the kids about our summer plans?

M: Yes. They're really excited about going camping for the first time.

W: That's good. Why don't we choose a campsite from this list?

M: Okay.

W: What about this campsite? It's the cheapest.

M: Yeah, but it doesn't offer a tent. We'll definitely need one.

W: Right. How about this one, then? It has a tent and provides electricity as well.

M: True, but I want the kids to have a real camping experience without electricity.

W: That's a good point. Let's try camping without it. [Pause] What's our budget for the campsite?

M: We shouldn't spend more than $80 a night.

W: I guess there's just one site left, then.

M: Okay. Let's make a reservation for it now.

W: Our kids are really excited about our plan to spend two nights outdoors.

M: Yeah, they sure do seem to like it. Let's choose one of these five campsites.

W: That's a great idea.

M: What about this one? Its price is the cheapest of all.

W: Yeah, but they don't provide a tent. You know we don't have a tent.

M: That's a problem. How about this one? It provides a tent and its price is $30 a day.

W: $30 is quite reasonable. Wait! It's too far away from Seoul. I don't think our kids want to spend three and a half hours in the car.

M: Oh, I didn't think of that. I don't want them to feel tired before they even get to the campsite. Now we have two options to choose from, the cheaper one or the nearer one.

W: I don't want to spend more than $100 for two nights.

M: Me, neither. Our kids are used to spending about two hours in a car.

W: You're right. That's what they do when they visit their grandparents. Let's decide on the former.

M: All right. I'll reserve it.

W: Hi, Simon. It's Sue Ellis here.

M: Oh, hi, Sue. How are you doing?

W: I can't complain. I'm calling because I'm going to be in Manchester on business next Tuesday.

M: Oh, really? How long will you be staying?

W: I made a reservation for the following Sunday evening's plane. I'd like to see you on Saturday afternoon before I leave.

M: Okay, I can do that. Do you have any place you want to go here in Manchester?

W: I'd like to go to the Manchester United football game.

Could you get tickets for the game?

M: Oh, really? I didn't know that you like football. Okay, no problem.

W: Thank you. Then, I'll treat you to dinner.

M: Okay, there is a great Italian restaurant near the stadium I know well.

W: That's good. I'll call you again when I get to Manchester.
